

A Family History

The Martello Family has been operating Marconi's Restaurant for over fifty-nine years. Opened in 1963 by Salvatore ad Angela Martello, the restaurant started as a breakfast, lunch, and dinner operation, located across the street from its present-day location.

Salvatore, born and raised in Sagata, Sicily, after marrying Angela Consolo in Sicily, moved to Rocky River, Ohio. There he commuted to Huron to work in the family grocery store, Consolo's Saveway Market.

Marconi's is currently operated by Carlo Martello, his wife Kim, and his 3 daughters Julia, Lauren, and Anna, as well as the staff with whom the Martello's consider family. Many of the staff members have worked here for decades. Chef Kailey continue to prepare unique seasonal features with ingredients from local farms and businesses. The Marconi's family is honored to serve their loyal customers and is thankful for all of your support throughout the years!
